

87TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. J. RES. 250

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 21, 1961

Mr. McDOWELL introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Rules

JOINT RESOLUTION

To establish a Joint Congressional Committee on Intelligence.

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That there is hereby established a Joint Congressional Com-
4 mittee on Intelligence (hereinafter referred to as "joint com-
5 mittee") to be composed of seven Members of the Senate
6 to be appointed by the President of the Senate, and seven 7 Members of the House of Representatives to be appointed by 8 the Speaker of the House of Representatives. In each 9 instance not more than four Members shall be members of the 10 same political party.

11 SEC. 2. The joint committee shall make continuing

I

1 studies of the intelligence activities and problems relating to 2 the gathering of intelligence affecting the national security
3 and of its coordination and utilization by the various depart-4 ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the Government.
5 The Central Intelligence Agency and other services engaged 6 in foreign intelligence activities shall keep the joint commit-7 tee fully and currently informed with respect to their activi-
8 ties. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the Senate 9 or the House of Representatives relating primarily to the 10 Central Intelligence Agency and to other services engaged 11 in foreign intelligence activities shall be referred to the joint 12 committee. The members of the joint committee who are 13 Members of the Senate shall from time to time report to the 14 Senate, and the members of the joint committee who are 15 Members of the House of Representatives shall from time to 16 time report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their recom-17 mendations with respect to matters within the jurisdiction of 18 their respective Houses which are (1) referred to the joint 19 committee or (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the 20 joint committee.

21 SEC. 3. Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
22 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members 23 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall

1 be filled in the same manner as in the case of the original 2 selection. The joint committee shall select a chairman and 3 vice chairman from among its members.

4 SEC. 4. The joint committee, or any duly authorized 5 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, 6 to sit and act at such places and times, to require, by sub-7 pena or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and 8 production of such books, papers, and documents, to admin-9 ister such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such 10 printing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it 11 deems advisable. The cost of stenographic services to report 12 such hearings shall not be in excess of 25 cents per hundred 13 words.

14 SEC. 5. The joint committee is empowered to appoint 15 such experts, consultants, technicians, and clerical and steno-16 graphic assistants as it deems necessary and advisable. The 17 committee is authorized to utilize the services, information, 18 facilities, and personnel of the departments and establish-19 ments of the Government on a reimbursable basis with the 20 prior consent of the heads of the departments or agencies 21 concerned.

22 SEC. 6. The expenses of the joint committee, which shall 23 not exceed $250,000 per year, shall be paid one-half from

- 1 the contingent fund of the Senate and one-half from the con-
- 2 tingent fund of the House of Representatives upon vouchers
- 3 signed by the chairman.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

APRIL 27, 1961

Mr. McCARTHY (for himself, Mr. ANDERSON, Mr. MORSE, Mr. CLARK, Mr. METCALF, Mr. BURDICK, Mr. BARTLETT, Mr. McNAMARA, Mr. HUMPHREY, Mr. CARROLL, Mr. LONG of Missouri, Mr. MOSS, Mr. McGEE, Mr. TALMADGE, Mr. HICKEY, Mr. CASE of South Dakota, Mr. PELL, Mr. PROUTY, Mr. YOUNG of Ohio, Mr. HART, and Mr. WILLIAMS of New Jersey) introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

JOINT RESOLUTION

To establish a Joint Committee on Foreign Information and Intelligence.

- 1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
- 2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
- 3 That (a) there is hereby established a joint congressional
- 4 committee to be known as the Joint Committee on Foreign
- 5 Information and Intelligence (referred to in this joint res-
- 6 olution as the "joint committee"), to be composed of seven
- 7 Members of the Senate appointed by the President of the
- 8 Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representatives

1 appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
2 In each instance not more than four Members shall be ap-
3 pointed from the same political party.

4 (b) Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
5 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
6 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be 7 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original 8 selection.

9 (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and 10 a vice chairman from among its members at the beginning of 11 each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in the place 12 and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman.
13 The chairmanship shall alternate between the Senate and 14 the House of Representatives with each Congress, and the 15 chairman shall be selected by the members of the joint 16 committee from the House entitled to the chairmanship.
17 The vice chairman shall be selected in the same manner as 18 the chairman, except that the vice chairman shall be selected 19 by the members of the joint committee from the House not 20 entitled to the chairmanship.

21 (d) The joint committee may appoint and fix the com-
22 pensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, and cleri-23 cal and stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and 24 advisable.

1 (e) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the 2 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the execu-
3 tive departments and establishments of the United States.

4 (f) The joint committee is authorized to classify infor-5 mation originating within the joint committee in accordance 6 with standards used generally by the executive branch of the 7 Federal Government for classifying restricted data or defense 8 information.

9 (g) The joint committee shall keep a complete record 10 of all committee actions, including a record of the votes on 11 any question on which a record vote is demanded. All 12 committee records, data, charts, and files shall be the prop-13 erty of the joint committee and shall be kept in the offices of 14 the joint committee, or such other places as the joint com-15 mittee may direct, under such security safeguards as the joint 16 committee shall determine to be in the interest of national 17 security.

18 (h) The joint committee may make such rules respect-19 ing its organization and procedures as it deems advisable, 20 but no measure or recommendation shall be reported from 21 the joint committee unless a majority of the members thereof 22 assent.

23 SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing 24 studies of—

1 (1) the activities of each information and intelli-
2 gence agency of the United States,

3 (2) the problems relating to the foreign informa-4 tion and intelligence programs, and 5 (3) the problems relating to the gathering of in-6 formation and intelligence affecting the national 7 security, and its coordination and utilization by the 8 various departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of 9 the United States.

10 (b) Each information and intelligence agency of the 11 United States shall give to the joint committee such in-12 formation regarding its activities as the committee may 13 require.

14 (c) As used in this joint resolution, the term "in-15 formation and intelligence agency of the United States" 16 means the United States Information Agency, the Central 17 Intelligence Agency, and any unit within any of the execu-
18 tive departments or agencies of the United States conduct-19 ing foreign information or intelligence activities (including 20 any unit within the Departments of State, Defense, Army, 21 Navy, and Air Force, but not including the domestic opera-22 tion of the Federal Bureau of Investigation).

23 SEC. 3. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the 24 Senate and House of Representatives relating primarily to 25 any information and intelligence agency of the United States

1 or its activities shall be referred to the joint committee. The 2 members of the joint committee who are Members of the 3 Senate shall, from time to time, report to the Senate, and 4 the members of the joint committee who are Members of the 5 House of Representatives shall, from time to time, report to 6 Workers' Compensation Act when that Act was administered 7 the House, by bill or otherwise, their recommendations with 8 respect to matters within the jurisdiction of their respective 9 Houses which are—
10 (1) referred to the joint committee, or 11 (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint 12 committee.
13 (b) In carrying out its duties under this joint resolu-
14 tion, the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcom-15 mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit 16 and act at such times and places, to require, by subpoena
17 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
18 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
19 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such print-20 ing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems 21 advisable. Subpenas may be issued over the signature of 22 the chairman of the joint committee, or by any member 23 designated by him, or by the joint committee, and may be 24 served by any person designated by such chairman or 25 member.

6

1 SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee shall be 2 paid from the contingent fund of the Senate from funds ap-
3 propriated for the joint committee upon vouchers approved
4 by the chairman. The cost of stenographic services in re-5 porting such hearings as the joint committee may hold shall 6 be paid in accordance with the established rules of the Sen-7 ate. Members of the joint committee, and its employees and 8 consultants, while traveling on official business for the joint 9 committee, may receive either the per diem allowance au-
10 thorized to be paid to Members of Congress or its employees, 11 or their actual and necessary expenses if an itemized state-12 ment of such expenses is attached to the voucher.

2 seven Members of the House of Representatives, appointed 3 by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

4 A vacancy in the membership of the committee shall be 5 filled in the same manner as the original selection. The com-6 mittee shall elect a chairman and a vice chairman from 7 among its members, one of whom shall be a Member of the 8 Senate and the other a Member of the House of Representa-9 tives.

10 It shall be the duty of the committee—

11 (a) To survey and analyze the overall and specific 12 objectives, strategy, and tactics of the international Com-13 munist conspiracy, and particularly the political, economic, 14 and subversive warfare activities currently and previously 15 waged by Communist regimes, with the view to determining 16 what additional measures must be taken to strengthen the 17 institutions of the countries of the free world, and what 18 additional programs the United States must develop to antici-19 pate and overcome "cold war" aggression; and further

20 (b) To report, from time to time to the Senate and 21 the House of Representatives, the results and interpretation
22 of its investigations together with such recommendations it
23 deems necessary. Upon request, the committee shall aid 24 the standing committees of the Congress having legislative

1 jurisdiction of any part of programs concerning the defense
2 and security of the United States.

3 The committee, or any subcommittee thereof, shall have 4 power to hold hearings and to sit and act at such places and 5 times within or outside of the United States, its territories,
6 and possessions, whether the Congress is in session, has re-7 cessed, or adjourned, to require by subpoena or otherwise the 8 attendance of such witnesses and the production of such 9 books, papers, and documents, to administer such oaths, to 10 take such testimony, and to make such expenditures, as it 11 deems necessary. Subpenas shall be issued under the signa-
12 ture of the chairman or vice chairman of said committee, 13 and be served by any person designated by him.

14 The committee shall have power to employ and fix the 15 compensation of such officers, experts, and employees as it 16 deems necessary for the performance of its duties, without 17 regard to the Classification Act of 1949, as amended. Offi-18 cers and employees of the Government shall be detailed to 19 the service of the joint committee on its request, without 20 additional compensation, and such officers and employees 21 shall be paid from the appropriation regularly available for 22 their salaries.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That there is hereby established a joint com-
3 mittee which shall make continuing studies and investiga-4 tions during the Eighty-seventh Congress of all aspects of the 5 foreign intelligence activities of the Central Intelligence
6 Agency. The Director of the Central Intelligence Agency 7 shall keep the joint committee fully and currently informed 8 with respect to the Agency's activities. The members of the 9 joint committee shall report to their respective houses as 10 promptly as possible during the present Congress, but not 11 later than December 31, 1962, the results of their investiga-12 tion and study, and shall include in such report specific

1 attendance of such witnesses and the production of such 2 books, papers, and documents, administer such oaths, to 3 take such testimony, to procure such printing and binding,
4 and to make such expenditures as it deems advisable.
5 Subpenas may be issued under the signature of the chairman
6 of the joint committee or any member of the joint com-7 mittee designated by him, and may be served by any person 8 designated by such chairman or member.

9 (c) The joint committee is empowered to appoint and 10 fix the compensation of such experts, consultants, techni-
11 cians, and clerical and stenographic assistants as it deems 12 necessary and advisable, but the compensation so fixed shall 13 not exceed the compensation prescribed under the Classi-
14 fication Act of 1949 for comparable duties. The joint com-
15 mittee is authorized to utilize the services, information, fa-
16 cilities, and personnel of the departments and establishments
17 of the Government.

18 (d) Expenses of the joint committee shall be paid from 4 eign Intelligence to be composed of nine Members of the 5 Senate to be appointed by the President of the Senate, and 6 nine Members of the House of Representatives to be ap-7 pointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

8 In each instance not more than five Members shall be 9 members of the same political party. Vacancies in the 10 membership of the joint committee shall not affect the power 11 of the remaining members to execute the functions of the

1 sit and act at such places and times, to require, by subpena
2 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
3 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer
4 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such printing 5 and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems 6 advisable. The cost of stenographic services to report such 7 hearings shall not be in excess of 25 cents per hundred words.
8 The provisions of sections 102 to 104, inclusive, of the 9 Revised Statutes shall apply in case of any failure of any 10 witness to comply with a subpena or to testify when sum-11 moned under authority of this section.

12 (c) The joint committee is empowered to appoint and
13 fix the compensation of such experts, consultants, techni-
14 cians, and clerical and stenographic assistants as it deems
15 necessary and advisable, but the compensation so fixed shall
16 not exceed the compensation prescribed under the Classi-
17 fication Act of 1949, as amended, for comparable duties.
18 The joint committee is authorized to utilize the services, 19 information, facilities, and personnel of the departments and 20 establishments of the Government.

21 SEC. 3. There are hereby authorized to be appropriated 22 such sums as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of 23 this Act.
